PORTSMOUTH, VA., August 10 .- The Richmond, of the longest home run of Trucker-Colt contest in the third in-ning this afternoon. In the second in-ning Grimes lifted one of Davis's benders over left centre fence on a line drive. It was by far the longest hit ever made in the local park. When rain stopped the game, Rich-mond was leading, 3 to 1.

GASTON LOSES OUT IN OPENING GAME

Roanoke Lands on Pitcher in Seventh and Eighth Innings—Tars Win the Second.

ROANOKE, VA., August 10.—Roanoke and Norfolk broke even in a double-header here this afternoon, Roanoke winning the first game, 6 to 4, and the Tars taking the second contest, 3 to 2.

In the first game Roanoke won the game in the eighth inning, landling on Gaston in both the seventh and eighth, scoring one in the former and three in the latter. The locals had little trouble in solving Gaston's offerings, hitting him safely—thirteen times. Jamison, twirling for Roanoke, held the Tars to veve a forther.

twirling for Rodnoke, Ren the seven safeties.

In the second game Rodnoke was unued to do much with Humphries, the Tar twirler, while the visitors made their hits on Chandler count when the seded. Rodnoke and Norfolk are pilled for double-headers to-morrow and Wednesday. The score:

This Season.

NEW YORK, August 10—It's about time that Ban Johnson, John Tener and Jimmy Gilmore got together in some quiet corner and decided that their own interests would be served best by ending the baseball warfare.

The vast majority of fans are tired of the baseball war. They prefer peace, Give it to them and they'll soon be trekking back to the parks this year, not so much because they have lost their love for the national game, but in silent protest against the constant mud-slinging that the baseball conflict has caused.

The fans want baseball—not baseball wants the constant mud-slinging that the baseball conflict has caused.

Quick on the Trigger With a Snap-Shot Eye

HE crack trapshooter has to be a man with steady nerves and muscles absolutely under control—always ready, at the sudden jerk of a string to swing his gun into place and bring down his clay pigeon. This means trained, not to the minute, but to the split-second. He takes no chances with his nerves.

We present the names of some of these crack shots who smoke Tuxedo. They like to smoke; but they take no chances on a tobacco that might "throw them off."

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette is purposely made to give you all the benehis of the highest grade smoke. It is made from the very finest tobacco Kentucky grows - ripe, mellow, sweet and mild old Burley, aged right up to perfection-day. Then treated by the original "Tuxedo Process," which takes out the sting, makes Tuxedo smoke cool and slow, and guarantees that it cannot bite your tongue.

Tuxedo has had many imitators; none has ever equalled it in sheer quality and smoking-value.
